A woman's grief turns to suspicion, as she must find the truth behind her husband's disappearance in this ratings-winning, ten-part thriller that was a huge hit in the Netherlands.

Liv is a successful woman, with a happy family life, but one day her life is turned upside down when the plane that should have taken her husband Simon on a routine business trip crashes, killing all onboard. However when news of the victims' identities comes through, it emerges he never boarded the flight. CCTV footage reveals he met another woman and child at the airport and they all left together. Liv's grief turns immediately to confusion, suspicion and anger at his betrayal. Who is this woman? Is the child Simon's? And where are they all now? A thrilling chase ensues, taking Liv all the way to Iran, ultimately on a mission to save her husband who she had previously believed to have abandoned her. Flight HS13 (Mucht HS13) follows Liv's journey alongside her brother-in-law, to discover the truth about what has happened to Simon, while the pair also find out some truths about feelings closer to home as well.
