“CAN LOVE CONQUER REVENGE?”

Produced by Rains Pictures and Unik Films, “Winds of Love” offers us a stunning look at how family secrets and the desire for revenge can push the limits of love.

Starring Gökberk Yıldırım (Beni Affet, Beni Bırakma) and Cemre Arda.

SUMMARY

Winds of Love tells the story of Halil and Zeynep, a Romeo and Juliet esque story of two young adults from different worlds, fighting the feud between their two families. Halil's humble and poor family worked for Zeynep's wealthy family, until they accused Halil's father of theft, leading him to be sent to prison. Halil vowed to get revenge on the family who caused them this misfortune. He works hard and eventually becomes a wealthy and respected businessman. After his parents' death, Halil returns to the town he once called home, to put his revenge plan into action. He thinks he has won after taking Zeynep's Family's mansion and all their wealth, however Zeynep who is a strong woman with a warrior spirit, will fight back to try to keep her family together. The feud soon becomes more intricate when Halil and Zeynep start to fall for each other...

Zeynep - Cemre Arda

Zeynep is a hardworking, strong woman with a warrior spirit and the daughter of the richest family in town. After her father's death, she took care of the family business as well as her family. Her grandmother is sick, however Zeynep does everything she can to make sure her grandmother lives as well as possible. On the other hand, Zeynep's mother's obsession with nobility and money has made Zeynep keep her distance from her mother. When an unexpected guest turns her life upside down, taking everything she owns from her, Zeynep will not shy away but instead fight to keep her family together.

Halil - Gökberk Yildirim

Halil, was brought up in a poor and humble family who worked for the wealthiest family in their town. When his father was accused of theft and sent to prison, Halil swore to get revenge. Years later, after having worked hard, Halil has become a wealthy, intelligent and respected businessman, that people fear. With a revenge plan in mind, he returns to town he grew up in and avenges his father. He takes all the assets of the once wealthy family and leaves them with nothing. However, soon his plan becomes more intricate when he starts to fall in love with, Zeynep, the daughter of his enemies.

Tülay - Zeynep Serpil Bozkurt

An egotistical woman with nothing more important than money in her life, Tulay bosses everyone around. She does not like her sick mother-in-law's presence in the mansion, which causes her to distance herself from her daughter Zeynep. Tülay, who cares about nothing but money and her reputation, is ready to cooperate with everyone to find a way out after she goes bankrupt.

Selma - Sena Pehlivan

Selma, who is always wanted to be raised as an “ideal woman” by her mother, is a fragile woman who feels inadequate. Knowing that she will never be as brave and warrior as her sister Zeynep makes her an introvert. Selma thinks that no one loves her except her father, and after his death she begins to live in a cocoon. Excited at the thought of gaining the approval of a new man with the love that enters her life, Selma loses all hope when she is abandoned by fiance after her family loses all their assets.

Merve - Ilayda Sumak

She is a spoiled girl who does nothing but flaunt her wealth and criticize everything. She is not interested in becoming an independent young woman because she relies on her family's wealth. After her family loses all their wealth, Merve becomes increasingly vicious and will do anything to marry a rich man and return to her rich days.

Zümrüt - Selma Kutlug

Zümrüt, who comes from a noble family, is very fond of her granddaughter Zeynep. She sees Zeynep as very similar to herself and is proud of her. After the death of her son, her dementia progresses further. Zümrüt, who continues to live in the past, has no idea what happened to her family. Her helpless situation wins Halil's heart and will cause Zeynep and Halil to get closer.

Songül - Dilek Aba

After Halil loses his parents, his aunt Songül becomes his family. Songül, who has been fond of money and power since her youth, wants to marry Ömer, Zeynep's father. Songül loses Ömer to Tülay and hates the Aslanlı family to death. She marries a rich man and lives the life she wants, but when she gets enough power, she divorces him and returns to the town for Halil's revenge plan. Although she is happy that the Aslanlı family fails on evil days, when she realizes Halil's feelings for Zeynep, she will do everything to separate them.

Gülhan - Sude Oduncu

Gülhan, Halil's older sister whom he likens to his mother, is a calm and kind-hearted woman. Her most important asset in life is Halil. Halil is also very fond of his sister and always protects her. Although she thinks she is happily married to her husband, he has been cheating on her for years. Gülhan, who is the first person to notice the romance between Halil and Zeynep, wants them to be together. She thinks that revenge will not be good for Halil and tries to dissuade him.

Tekin - Furkan Bozkurt

Tekin, who married Gülhan for her money, is a lying man who cheats on her. Halil does not believe in his love and always keeps an eye on him to prevent his sister from getting hurt. When it is revealed that he wants to steal money from the company and gain power, Halil does his best to get him out of their lives.

Erin - Serdar Yusuf

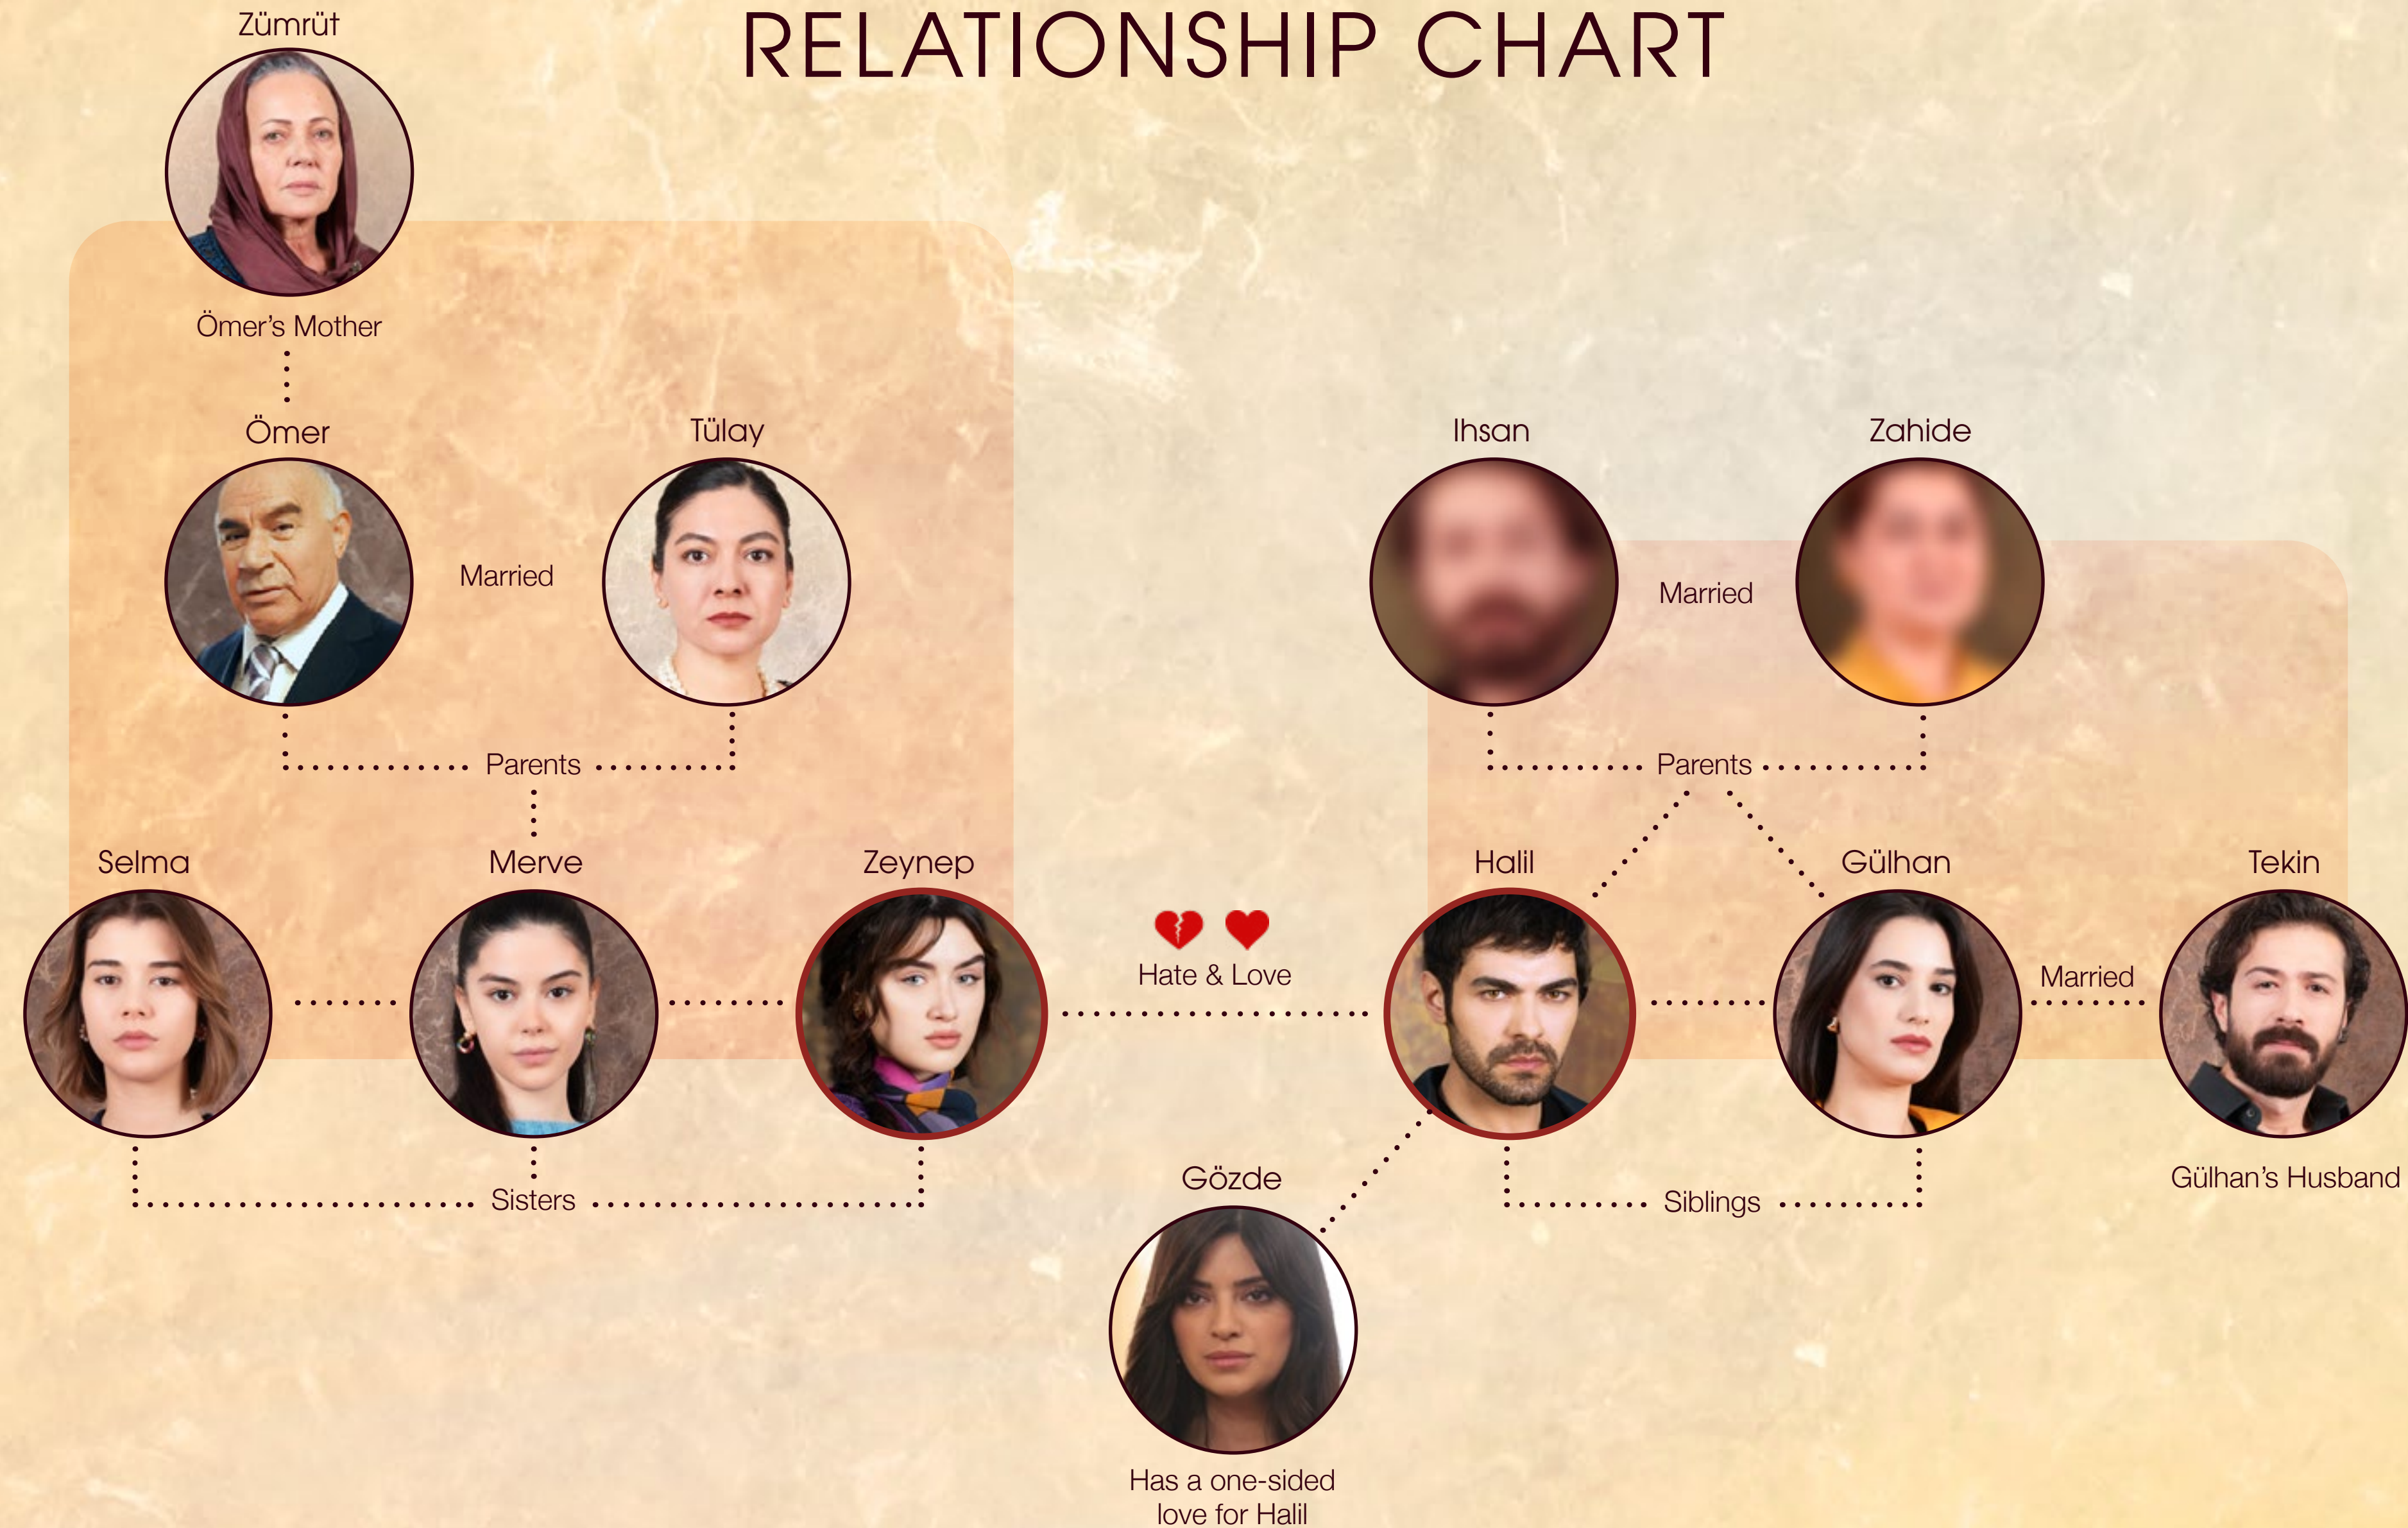

Eren, Halil's friend from university, is an orphan who grew up in an orphanage. When Halil becomes rich and buys the farm, he invites him to join him and they work together. Eren, a well-meaning and honest man, never hesitates to tell the truth. Since they are best friends and he knows Halil well, he realizes Halil's weakness for Zeynep.

Gözde - Hilal Yildiz

Gözde, Halil's childhood friend who has long been obsessively in love with him, has recently started working in the U.S. after studying psychology there. Without warning, she returns to Turkey, determined to reclaim a place in Halil's life. But she's met with a shocking revelation — Halil is now a married man. Rather than deterring her, this only intensifies Gözde's obsession. She becomes fixated on driving a wedge between Halil and his wife, Zeynep, doing everything in her power to win him back.
