

THE CLAN

ay papim

PRO-TV

eccho rights

SYNOPSIS

Tudor and his little brother were best friends growing up, but one day disaster struck the family as the younger boy was kidnapped, never to be seen again.

Forever blaming himself for what happened, Tudor dedicates himself to leading a good life trains hard to become an elite police officer. On the eve of graduating from the police training programme, Tudor is tasked with the ultimate undercover mission: to infiltrate a criminal gang, by turning on the police, getting himself arrested, and accessing their network when in prison.

At the same time, David, another young graduate of the programme is emerging as a real hero on the force. But when Tudor realises that David is an undercover gangster, infiltrating the police on an opposite mission to his own, the chase is on for each to expose the other.

Just as the chase reaches its dramatic peak, the two men realise that David is in fact Tudor's estranged brother - but will their family ties be enough for them to betray the mission that each has been assigned?

TUDOR ACHIM

Tudor is a daredevil with hot temper and when his anger rages it is difficult to soothe. At the same time he has a strong sense of justice and Tudor is the very definition of being an idealist. Even though he will fight to the bitter end for the things he puts his mind to he also has an emotional side to him. Although he considers it to be as a weakness in his job as an undercover in the mafia and therefore does everything to suppress it.

Tudor's mother means the whole world to him and he sees Ilinca like a sister. Tudor's younger brother disappeared when they were children and he felt responsible for it happening. He has never gotten over it and the guilt haunts him. Tudor used to look up to his father until the day he discovered the truth about him. Feeling let down by his hero his admiration turned into rage and was a turning point for Tudor and made him decide to join the police academy.

He firmly believes that by infiltrating Bebe's crime organization and succeeding in his mission to take it down, he will get peace in his soul and mind. However, Bebe's lawyer and protégé, Vera will shatter his plans through his love for her, his emotional side will emerge.

DAVID PRIBEAG

David grew up on the streets where he met Vera and they became close friends. He has overcome all the difficulties in life that was thrown at him and has never had anything in life that he was afraid of losing. Bebe picked him off the streets and for that David is forever grateful towards him and sees him as a father figure.

David doesn't have any bad conscience about being Bebe's mole and having successfully infiltrated the police force. He considers it rather as a fair repayment to Bebe for taking him in. Despite all the hardship he has experienced in life there is also a cheerful side to him. His cheekiness and wryness are merely defence mechanisms against the world. His relationships with women are always transient until he meets Ilinca. Ilinca is as decent and naive as David is dark and her innocence enchants David.

ILINCA ANGHEL

Ilinca is the only child of a broken home. Her family sent her to stay with her “Aunt Luminita” when she was young, so that she could get a decent education. Although they are not blood related, she replaced her broken, loveless family with Luminita and her son Tudor, whom she loves as a brother. She lived with her Aunt through out high school and university and now has her own place after starting to work as a journalist.

Meeting David changes her life. However, when she finds out that David, with whom she has fallen in love, is a dirty cop, she starts having doubts: does she turn a blind eye to it, or does she expose him?

VERA MAXIMILIAN

Vera is Bebe Udrea's Goddaughter. When she was young Bebe rescues her from her life on the streets together with David. He paid for her education and made her the lawyer for the legitimate businesses he runs. Even though she is aware of Bebe's dirty dealings, Vera cares a great deal for him and calls him "father".

She has never experienced a romantic relationship with anyone. However, when Tudor enters her life she discovers the love-deprived woman that harbours inside and starts to have feelings and desires she never knew existed. To trust someone other than Bebe and David will be a totally new experience for Vera

BEBE UDREA

Bebe Udrea is a hard and cruel crime boss and any pure emotions he might have had in the past are long gone.

He had a regular childhood and worked at the small café his father ran. However, this would soon come to change when a small-time mafia started picking on the café. When his father refused to pay the extortion fees, the mafia shot him right in front of Bebe's eyes. Although he testified about the incident, the police did not investigate it. Bebe decided to take justice into his own hands, and get revenge by killing his father's murderers.

He got out of prison a completely different man and decided that any justice not personally handed out by him, was no justice at all.

THE CLAN

GENRE

DRAMA/THRILLER

DURATION

13 x 100 MIN

ORIGINAL TITLE

Clanul

PRODUCER

Ay Yapim

BROADCASTER

Pro TV (Romania)

DISTRIBUTOR

ECCHO RIGHTS