MY HOME MY DESTINY

A blockbuster romantic drama series from OGM Pictures, My Home My Destiny became TV8's most watched drama series ever upon its release, and has captured audiences around the world with its stunning central performances from Demet Özdemir (Daydreamer), Ibrahim Çelikkol (Iffet) and Engin Öztürk (Fatmagül)

Zeynep blossoms into a clever, educated and beautiful young woman, engaged to be married to a dream man from the top of society. However, just as things seem to be going so well for Zeynep, her birth mother makes a surprise return to her life, giving her reason to consider everything she has and if this is truly the life she is destined to lead.

Drawn back towards the neighbourhood where she was born, Zeynep meets Mehdi. A local hero, Mehdi is a kind man who runs a small business and takes good care of those in need in the community, though he is streetwise and not afraid to let his fists do the talking with his enemies. He was friends with Zeynep's brother when they were kids, and his family remember Zeynep fondly. When she reappears on the local scene, plans are swiftly made to marry the two and, though not sure that she is ready to give up on her adoptive family and the life they have given her, Zeynep ultimately chooses to go ahead with the wedding, unable to deny the chemistry between her and the handsome and humble Mehdi.

Though they are both initially hesitant going into the marriage, a passionate romance soon develops between Zeynep and Mehdi. As with any married couple they have their problems, but they support each other through thick and thin, with their love able to conquer anything. Even when Zeynep discovers Mehdi's ex is pregnant with his baby, conceived just before the two met, she is able to put it behind her and welcomes the expectant mother into their family home.

And Mehdi is initially happy to see Zeynep thrive with her studies and complete her law degree, even though he is wary of her returning to her old life and her ambitions of being a high flying legal executive. But when she does secure a top job, working for the handsome Baris, things start to sour again for Mehdi, who can't contain his fierce jealousy.

With Zeynep once more torn between her roots, her ambitions and her dreams, a struggle for her heart breaks out again that this time can only end in tragedy...
