

GONUL

Gonul is a brand new series on Star TV in Turkey from the original producer of worldwide hit series Sila. A story about family ties, love and revenge.

Gonul was raised in an orphanage, but uses her discipline and determination to become a successful surgical nurse. Gonul meets a famous brain surgeon called Tekin at the hospital where she works. Tekin is an attractive man and falls in love with Gonul. They have a lot in common - Tekin also had a difficult childhood as his mother suffered from depression. He needs love and validation.

Gonul and Tekin plan to get married, but on the day of the wedding, an ex girlfriend from Tekin's past shows up and shares scary secrets about Tekin. At first, Tekin denies that he even knows the girl. Gonul doesn't believe him and is devastated that he is lying. When the ex girlfriend is found dead a few days later, Gonul starts to understand that Tekin is a very dangerous man. She decides to leave him, but he beats her up when she is trying to flee. Gonul manages to escape, finds her father and ends up in a triangle drama with her past.
