MIDWIFE GRACE, A FIERCE ADVOCATE FOR HER PREGNANT PATIENTS, FACES UPHEAVAL WHEN A NEW ARRIVAL AT THE BIRTH CENTRE CHANGES HER LIFE FOREVER.

Amazing Grace is a heartfelt, high-stakes drama set in a bustling Birth Centre attached to a major city hospital. At its centre is Grace, a devoted midwife and passionate advocate for the mothers in her care. But Grace's carefully ordered world is thrown into turmoil when her teenage daughter Sophia - whom she gave up for adoption seventeen years ago - arrives unexpectedly, pregnant and full of questions.

As Grace scrambles to reconcile her past with her present, tensions rise. Sophia's adoptive father Kirk arrives, stirring up old wounds, and Sophia's plans for her baby, Eadie, clash with Grace's maternal instincts. Meanwhile, the Birth Centre remains a place of both joy and crisis - from fraught home births and emotional adoption cases to legal battles and a missing newborn that forces everyone to unite.
